6 What Happens after a Report is made?
6.1 All reported concerns will be investigated appropriately and where appropriate feedback regarding the investigation’s outcome will be provided to you.
6.2 The necessary course of action will be taken in response to a report and if no action is taken you will be given an explanation.
6.3 Your identity and the fact that you have made a report and the contents of the report will be kept confidential and no details of your participation in this process will be included in your personnel file or performance review.
6.4 The report will not be disclosed to anyone except those that are actively involved in investigating the matters raised in the report.

7 What Happens to You?
7.1 You will not be discriminated against or disadvantaged in your employment with the Group, for making a report in accordance with this policy nor will you receive reprisals due to your actions in making a report.
7.2 The Company will take all reasonable steps to ensure that adequate and appropriate protection is being provided to those who, in good faith, make a report. This protection applies if the matter is proven or not, regardless of whether it is reported to the external service provider.
7.3 Whistleblowing is not about airing a grievance. It is about reporting real or perceived malpractice. A report may damage the career prospects and reputation of people who are the subject of serious allegations and therefore if your report is not made in good faith or is found to be malicious, deliberately misleading or frivolous, you may be subject to disciplinary action which may include termination of employment.
